

The Wine Growing Regions of Texas

Eight federally approved Viticultural Areas currently exist in Texas. Eighty-five percent of wine from a Viticultural Area must be made from grapes grown within the area's boundaries. If the wine is a varietal, 75 percent of that wine must be made from the designated grape variety.

*Information provided by the Texas Department of Agriculture. www.gotexanwine.org

*Map Provided by The World Atlas of Wine by Hugh Johnson, Jancis Robinson.